

The Millennium Masquerade Ball

2000

Le Royal MERIDIEN

KING EDWARD

December 31, 1999
to January 2, 2000
Le Royal Meridien King Edward
presents

The Crown Jewels Millennium Packages

Cullinan

The largest diamond in the world.
3,106 carats, presented to King Edward VII of Britain.

Jonker

726 carats, unequalled in quality to any diamond in the world.

Koh-i-noor

The most celebrated diamond in the world.
Presented to Queen Victoria of Britain in 1850.

Star of Africa

The largest cut diamond in the world weighing 530 carats.

An Historical Evening of Glamour and Mystery

Celebrate the dawn of a golden new age as Le Royal Meridien King Edward presents our magnificent Millennium Masquerade Ball. Experience a flamboyant affair that truly captures the essence of this rare and remarkable occasion.

Don a fanciful mask or let us provide one for you.
If you dare, engage your fantasies in full costume and join in the mirth and merriment.

Dance the night away to the sounds of an eight-piece ensemble. The Shelley Miller Band will fill the air with festive music as the party unfolds in our grand lobby.

As befits the Millennium celebration, we offer
the lavish Crown Jewels Millennium Packages featuring our Millennium gala, sumptuous dinner in our acclaimed restaurants, luxurious accommodations, champagne and a delectable
New Year's Day Champagne Brunch.

Come join us for an affair of sheer splendour that enchants and indulges every honoured guest.

Make history and make merry at Le Royal Meridien King Edward.